BSMHFT are holding an open evening on Monday 13th July 2015 to inform the local community of the opportunities we offer within the Trust. The event is for individuals interested in work experience, apprenticeships, volunteering or a career in the NHS and would like find out more information.

There will be a number of stands at the event promoting the variety of opportunities that are available. Representatives from Recruitment, Learning and Development, our learning providers, career ambassadors, volunteers and apprentices will be available to provide advice or guidance. There will also be a programme of speakers throughout the day providing information about specific careers.

The event has been promoted to schools, colleges and universities in Birmingham and Solihull. We would also welcome staff, service users and relatives who are interested in these opportunities to book a place, please contact the team on workexperience@bsmhft.nhs.uk or 0121 301 3953
