Response

Birmingham and Solihull Mental Health Foundation Trust do not commission community equipment, telecare services or telehealth/telemedicine programme.

Please note that Birmingham and Solihull Mental Health Foundation Trust explicitly provide mental health services.

The commissioning of equipment, telecare services and telehealth/telemedicine programme are commonly found within Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs) or community service Trusts as they are responsible for providing care packages and equipment for patients.

To obtain further information on the commissioning of community equipment, telecare services and telehealth/telemedicine programme please redirect your request to CCG's and community service Trusts.

For question 7 and 8 the Trust can confirm the following,
