

FOI 0190 /2022 Response

How many individuals either attempting serious self-harm or with intent or suicide – between 2016 and 2021:

a) have previously attempted to take their own life 14

Clarification

Where the person has at least one incident of attempted suicide (confirmed suicide or self-harm incidents where the person came to moderate harm and above) between 01-01-2016 and 31-12-2021 and another previous incident

b) have a history of suicide 144

Clarification

A distinct count of patients with an incident of moderate self-harm and above, or suicide, recorded on our incident reporting system and whose latest Risk Assessment form prior to that incident had a flag to indicate that a history or risk of suicide was present.

c) have a history of using mental health services with the NHS? 266

Clarification

A distinct count of patients with an incident of moderate self-harm and above, or suicide, recorded on our incident reporting system and who had at least one previous community referral or inpatient spell with the Trust prior to the one during which the incident occurred.